OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

19 March 2012

MUR # 6542

In researching the Republican candidates seeking to represent Oklahoma House District 2, one campaign distinguishes itself by appearing to violate three distinct policies of the Federal Election Commission (FEC).

By use of public communication, it is my understanding that the campaign of Markwayne Mullin, otherwise known as "Mullin for Congress" has violated policy by using the personal plumbing business of Markwayne Mullin to promote his candidacy.

In both print and video advertising, the campaign uses storefront images, logo-bearing Mullin plumbing vehicles, and business employees to promote the candidate. Examples would be the enclosed mailer and the following link to the campaign website <http://www.mullinforcongress.com/>.

A second contention is the issue of receipts for donations amounting to greater than the allowed $2500 per election. As per the FEC website, the Mullin campaign has made numerous redesignations and reattributions of donations. This is an excessive number, especially when compared to the other candidates. This indicates a consistent pattern of flouting the policy, to be addressed only if caught.

The matter in which the redesignations were made are also questionable. Some of the parties involved operate as corporations in the State of Oklahoma. An unusual amount of donations are being accepted from businesses, which then are redesignated as being received from separate individuals.

Also at issue are reports showing the campaign accepts more than one donation from an individual which total $10,000 or more. This is in violation of policy indicating that donations should be given in increments not to exceed $2,500 per election. Even if redistributed to allocate $2,500 each for the general, primary, and runoff elections, this amount would still be only $7,500.

Because the above violations occur numerous times, it indicates to me an unethical pattern of allowing such contributions, rather than a single infraction which was then corrected.

The third issue is that there are a number of direct violations according to the FEC rules prohibiting corporations from making donations directly to a campaign.

Attached is a copy of the corporation status for just a few of the businesses listed on the FEC report.

13044331499

It is also my understanding that the F.E.C. has requested additional proof on a few of the contributions mentioned above.

I believe the unusual methods being used by the campaign and pattern of questionable donations give reason for concern and have therefore prompted my complaint.

Sincerely,

Morgan Anderssen-Williams

"WITHOUT A NEW DIRECTION
THE AMERICAN DREAM WILL BECOME A MEMORY OF OUR PAST INSTEAD OF THE PROMISE OF OUR FUTURE."

— MARKWAYNE MULLIN

Fourth-Generation Adair County Rancher

My roots are deep in eastern Oklahoma. In fact, our home in Westville is located on the land that my family has worked for generations.

Successful Entrepreneur and Businessman

My wife, Christie, and I took over my dad's plumbing company 14 years ago. Since then, it has grown from six employees to more than 100. The company has become one of the largest service companies in the state. We also own property and construction companies as well as a ranching operation.

Faith and Family are the Cornerstones

Christie and I have been married 14 years, and she is my partner in everything I do. We were high school sweethearts and today have three children, ages 7, 6 and 3. Together, we run our businesses and have enjoyed pouring our hearts into the youth of our church and community. We put our Christian faith and our family before all else.

Conservative Convictions of the Heart

I love America, our freedom, our Constitution, and our nation's entrepreneurial spirit. I am a strong defender of the Second Amendment and a firm believer in the sanctity of life. We must return to the principle of "One Nation, under God." We must rein in spending, restore our moral integrity and strengthen traditional families.

Fiscal Responsibility, Living by Example

Stop spending! It's just that simple; the federal government must stop spending our children's future. I run my business, my family and personal finances without debt, because borrowing today only robs from tomorrow. America is now paying the price for its excesses. The self-interested politicians of today have failed; they look out for their own best interests instead of putting our country first.

"OUR CHILDREN DESERVE
THE PROMISE OF THE AMERICAN DREAM."

My name is

William R. Miller

I am a conservative Republican businessman running for the United States Congress.

Through hard work and with God's grace, I took a debt-ridden company from six employees to more than 120.
Today, we have more than 80 red trucks serving Oklahomans and operate debt free. It's time to put America on the same path.

Markwayne Mullin for Congress

When I was 20 years old, my Dad asked me to take over as owner of our family's small plumbing business.

It had been a great business, providing for our family for a quarter century. Unfortunately, Dad's illness required the bulk of his energy, leaving in place a manager who amassed a half-million dollars in debt. The company was on the brink of bankruptcy.

My wife, Chrisie, and I rolled up our sleeves to do whatever we could to protect the jobs of six hard-working men and women.

At the time, we didn't know much about business. We relied on the Biblical guidelines of working hard, eliminating debt, and using our God-given talents to the best of our abilities.

We worked long, hard hours, invested sweat equity and never spent money we didn't have. Within a few years, we paid off our debt and began to invest and grow.

Today, we employ more than 120 employees, and operate Mullin Plumbing completely debt free. With more than 80 red trucks traveling this great state, we're the largest plumbing service company in Oklahoma.

Now America faces a similar plight.
Career politicians have bankrupted our business experience without real-life
children's future for political gain.

I'm running for Congress, because America needs an experienced businessman—not another politician—to roll up his sleeves, get to work, and start running this country more like a business.

I pledge to serve only six years in Congress. Join me to put America on the right path. As patriots, let's sacrifice today so our kids can succeed tomorrow.
